

Sitch joins 'Dancing'

"Dancing With the Stars" is getting a dose of drama next season. "Jersey Shore" star Mike "The Situation" Sorrentino will reportedly join the next cast of the ABC competition show.

"[It's a] done deal," a source told E! News. "He's going to be the Kate Gosselin of the new season, minus the fact that we think people on set will probably like him. ...

He's going to be hilarious."

Ex-"Hills" star Audrina Patridge also has signed on, according to E! News.

Still working out the details are "Bachelorette" couple Alli Fedotowsky and Roberto Martinez, who are in talks with ABC but haven't finalized anything yet.

celebrity sightings

Tyra Banks having dinner with a friend at T-Bar at Savannah's in Southampton

Larry David shooting "Curb Your Enthusiasm" at the Carlton Hotel

"Housewife" Ramona Singer drinking pinot grigio at Flex Mussels

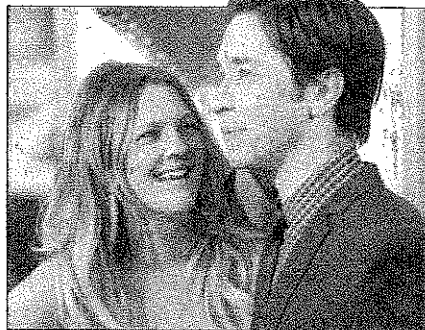

Singer Ciara having dinner with friends at Philippe Chow

Heidi in on sex tape biz

The whole Heidi Montag-Spencer Pratt situation just keeps getting more out of hand.

Following reports that Montag was horrified at the idea that her ex planned to release a sex tape of them, it now appears she's in on the negotiations (or publicity stunt).

According to TMZ.com, Montag is scheduled to meet with Vivid Entertainment honcho Steve Hirsch next week to discuss the footage, which reportedly also includes Montag getting busy with Karissa Shannon, who used to date Hugh Hefner.

Back together? On-again, off-again couple Drew Barrymore and Justin Long chat at the L.A. premiere of their film "Going the Distance."

