Mad about NYC and all things Don Draper

New York's Carlton hotel is offering the ultimate Mad Men Package: 'Mad about NYC.'

Guests can walk in the well-heeled footsteps of Don Draper, Roger Sterling, Joan Harris and the entire Sterling Cooper gang with this special travel package created exclusively for the Carlton Hotel for fans of the hit TV show Mad Men.

The package includes a one-night stay in a standard full room at the historic hotel on Madison Avenue, just blocks away from where the fictitious advertising agency is located. The hotel concierge will cut the lines and make guests a reservation at the ultra-exclusive 21 Club, the perfect place for a 3-martini lunch (or dinner!).

The package also includes coupons to NYC's historic Bloomingdales to pick out a modern version of Pete's "chip 'n dip" wedding present. Guests will receive tickets to Manhattan's Museum of Modern Art to appreciate many of the prominent artists of the '60s, including Mark Rothko, whose artwork was featured in Mr. Cooper's office.

Finally a perfect take-away-a recipe book for Classic Cocktails, so guests can go home and make all those fun drinks featured on the show such as Betty's Tom Collins, Roger's Vodka Martinis, Don's "old fashioned", and Peggy's Bloody Marys.

This package is $129.99 per person + tax a night. The package is valid through the end of the year and can be booked on Carlton's website www.carltonhotelnyc.com.

"Mad about NYC" Package includes:

- 1-night in a Standard Full Room
- 2 Tickets to the Modern Museum of Art
- Dinner Reservations at the 21 Club
- Classic Cocktail Recipe book to take home
