FOX411 celebrity 'Scene & Herd' sightings

Co-stars Reese Witherspoon and Paul Rudd were spotted at the Regina Spektor concert at The Electric Factory in Philadelphia. The friends refused to take pictures with fans, but they did say hello and chat with the people at the bar.

"Twilight" and "Nurse Jackie"'s resident doctor, Peter Facinelli, decided to kill his four hour flight delay by taking pictures with lucky Twihards at the Sony Vaio launch party at Guastavinos restaurant in Manhattan.

"The City" star Whitney Port was spotted trying on multiple MetalSkin bracelets to wear on her show at New York's Coterie .

Mr. Big AKA Chris Noth patiently waited for a pal for over 10 minutes in NYC on the corner of 23rd Street and 5th Avenue in jeans and a casual polo.

Mariska Hargitay is not a clean freak. She was caught playing barefoot with son August Hermann after going through security at LAX airport in Los Angeles.

Glee star Lea Michelle taped her afternoon appearance on David Letterman, then treated her parents to a performance of "Rock of Ages" on Broadway.

Angie Harmon was seen at Country Restaurant at the Carlton Hotel last week, where she was hobnobbing with five teeny tots. Instead of focusing on the adults with her, the mother of three, played with five children, none of which where her own!

Paris Hilton played with a real baby monkey while boyfriend, Doug Reinhardt, took photos of her at the opening night of Carnival nightclub in New York.
